

Meeting with the representatives of the Embassy of the Philippines

The Chief Labour Inspector, Wiesław Łyszczek, together with Deputy Chief Labour Inspector, Bogdan Drzastwa, and a few other members of staff had a meeting on 28 January 2019 at the Chief Labour Inspectorate with the representatives of the Embassy of the Republic of the Philippines: Maria Alnee A. Gamble - chargé d'affaires and Maria Corina Bunag – labour attaché.

The Philippine delegation expressed a wish to continue the ongoing cooperation with the Polish Inspectorate, particularly given the large number of Philippine citizens taking up employment in Poland, Polish employers gaining interest in employing Philippine workers and the necessity to broaden the knowledge of both parties on the rules and regulations in effect during the performance of work.

The discussion which took place during the meeting mainly concerned services in the road transport industry, the basis of legal work performance in Poland and the procedures in case of potential infringements.
