

Meeting with the Ambassador of Argentina

On 9 May 2019 the Chief Labour Inspector, Wiesław Łyszczek, met the Ambassador of the Republic of Argentina, Ana Maria Ramirez, accompanied by her co-workers, at the seat of the Chief Labour Inspectorate.

The subject of the meeting, initiated by the diplomatic mission, were issues concerning the workers' remuneration for leave or during a period of illness, as well as issues regarding the excusing of an absence from work due to sickness or a hospital stay.

The meeting was also attended by the following NLI Staff: Bogdan Drzastwa, Deputy Chief Inspector, Ewa Dośła, the director of the Chief Labour Inspector's Cabinet, and Anna Jaworska, Chief Specialist at the CLI Legal Department.