Introduction:

The Bulgarian Labour Inspectorate is subordinate to the Minister of Labour and Social Policy. It comprises a central unit, i.e. the General Labour Inspectorate Executive Agency and 28 Labour Inspection Territorial Directorates all over the country. It supervises compliance with labour law, national provisions transposing the Framework Directive 89/391/EEC and specific directives, as well as other regulations.

The most important issues covered by supervision:

- OSH
- labour law
- migration of workers
- legality of employment
- posting of workers

Agreement:

The Cooperation Agreement in the field of occupational safety and health of 25 August 2010 stipulates its various forms, such as: exchange of experts and labour inspectors, participation in training events, conferences, meetings organised by the other party, exchange of information materials, exchange of information concerning planning, methodology, coordination, implementation and assessment of inspection activities, exchange of information on the posting of workers. The cooperation priority mentioned in the agreement is the exchange of information and practices related to: implementation of EU directives on OSH, law enforcement and posting of workers.
