

The Czech Republic

Státní úřad inspekce práce (SÚIP)

State Labour Inspection Office

Address of the seat:

Kolářská 451/13

746 01 Opava

Česká republika

Tel.: +420 950 179 101

Fax: +420 553 626 672

Email: opava@suij.cz

www.suij.cz

Introduction:

The State Labour Inspection Office (SÚIP) is a supervisory and inspection authority operating in the structures of the Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs. The office is managed by the Inspector General, appointed by the Minister of Labour and Social Affairs. The legal basis for activity of SUIP is the Act no. 251/2005 on Labour Inspection.

The State Labour Inspection Office comprises: the Head Office in Opava and 8 Regional Labour Inspectorates all over the country, including also the Regional Labour Inspectorate for the city of Prague.

Areas covered by inspection:

- Occupational safety and health
- Safe operation of machinery and special technical equipment
- Labour relations, labour law
- Employment, including legality of employment
- Posting of workers under Directives 96/71/EC and 2014/67/EU

The essential information on OSH provisions and labour law which are in force in the Czech Republic is available in Polish at the link:

<http://www.suij.cz/polskie-dokumenty/>

Agreement on cooperation:

The agreement on cooperation between National Labour Inspectorate in the Republic of Poland and State Labour Inspection Office in the Czech Republic was concluded in 2005.

Bilateral cooperation:

Both authorities conduct close cooperation in their capacity as liaison offices for directives on the posting of workers in the framework of the provision of services. Moreover, bilateral contacts serve the exchange of experience and good practices in matters related to the activity of both inspectorates. They take place at the central and regional levels.